RE: Anderson v. General Motors
C.A. No. 05-877
Subpoena for Records

Dear Mr. Anderson:

P0 scanned

The Delaware Department of Labor – Human Resources is in receipt of your subpoena requesting the production of records in the above captioned action (Ex. A). The subpoena requested documents for “[a]ll employee hire from 1982 – Oct-07/Including there[sic] race.”

The complaint in the above captioned action is a civil rights action against General Motors alleging failure to hire based on race. The Delaware Department of Labor does not receive employment records from private companies unless they are part of a specific investigation. Therefore, the Delaware Department of Labor does not have General Motors' employment records. Further, the EEOC complaint you filed, charge number 170-2005-01768, was not filed with the Delaware Department of Labor but with the Equal Opportunity Employment Commission, Philadelphia District Office. The Delaware Department of Labor has reviewed its files and does not have records related to charge number 170-2005-01768.

Given the above, the Delaware Department of Labor does not have documents that are responsive to your request.

Sincerely,
